Questions I Need To Answer:

Questions and commentary from Rick Renner

1. What is my level of spiritual consecration?

Are you 100% sold-out to Jesus? Are you willing to sacrifice your comfort and convenience for someone else's benefit? Is there anything you're not willing to do for Jesus? Is there anything that you feel would be beneath you? In days gone by, it was not uncommon to hear people at the altar praying and dedicating their lives to God. A common, heart-felt prayer was, "God, I'll go where you want me to go. I'll do what you want me to do. I'll say what you want me to say." Serving becomes easier when you've totally and completely surrendered all of your life and all of your heart to God. Consecration was clearly modeled for us in the Garden of Gethsemane when Jesus prayed, "...not My will, but Yours, be done" (Luke 22:42 NKJV).

2. How is my servant's attitude?

Many will say they want to be like Jesus, but have they really considered what that entails? Jesus communicated plainly what it means to have a "kingdom attitude." Matthew 20:26-28 (NKJV) says, "...whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many." Martin Luther King Jr. said, "Everybody can be great...because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."
